Opportunities for Visionary Educators

Aurora University - An inclusive community dedicated to the transformative power of learning.

We seek talented faculty who are passionate about teaching and learning and who will help us realize our vision. As a private institution, Aurora University expects faculty to be involved in the lives of students through mentoring, student support, enrollment initiatives, and other activities related to the college experience. To facilitate this highly interactive faculty/student relationship, the typical teaching load is three 4 credit-hour courses per semester and student advising is supported by professional staff. Evidence of successful teaching, or a strong potential for successful teaching, is required for all positions. Undergraduate faculty share in the delivery of the general education program, most often by teaching within the university's interdisciplinary core. The positions listed here are located at the Aurora, Illinois campus.

Undergraduate Position:

Marketing: Tenure Track Assistant Professor

Doctorate in Marketing or related field required. Successful candidate will be able to teach a variety of marketing courses including integrated marketing communications, social media marketing, internet marketing, and interdisciplinary general education courses. In addition to teaching, the assignment will include curricular development, program assessment, student advising, supervising internships, and engagement in institutional service and professional scholarship.

Graduate and Adult Studies Positions:

Accounting: Tenure or Clinical Track Assistant Professor

Doctorate in Accountancy, or a related field, and CPA required for tenure track position. Master's degree in Accountancy, or a related field, CPA, and relevant professional experience required for clinical track position. The selected candidate will be an outstanding teacher and mentor with a passion for the accounting profession and the preparation of its professionals. The new hire will primarily teach graduate and undergraduate courses in accounting. Teaching emphases in auditing or taxation are highly desirable. Faculty teaching financial and managerial accounting is also important.

Business Administration: Tenure or Clinical Track Assistant/Associate Professor and Chair of Graduate Business Programs

The new hire will teach in the Dunham School of Business, primarily graduate courses, and secondarily undergraduate courses as needed. They will also serve as the chair of the business graduate programs. The selected candidate will work with the dean to lead and provide administrative oversight for the graduate business programs. The successful candidate will champion recruitment efforts and work closely with enrollment staff to ensure the meeting of enrollment goals. The new hire is expected to be an outstanding teacher and administrator as well as a mentor for students and faculty. A doctorate in a business field or a master's degree with relevant professional experience is required. Teaching and administrative experience as well as industry experience is desired.

All faculty positions offer a competitive salary and excellent benefits including health, dental, vision, life, long term disability and generous matching contributions to a 403(b) plan. Applications must include a letter of intent including description of education, certifications held, and all relevant experience, current curriculum vitae, and contact information for three references including phone numbers (candidates will be notified prior to references being contacted). Applications received by 13 February 2015, will receive full consideration. Electronic applications welcomed.
