About the Goodman School of Business

The Goodman School of Business, named for respected business leader Ned Goodman, is AACSB accredited and offers graduate and undergraduate programs in business and accounting. Goodman is a collaborative environment and home to many celebrated faculty members who are both innovative researchers and exemplary teachers, two of whom were recently identified alongside two other Canadian researchers in business and management education as among the 99 most productive worldwide.

Under renewed leadership at both the presidential and decanal levels, Brock and the Goodman School of Business are committed to building the scope and reach of the School with expansion of existing university and business relationships at the local, national and global levels. Already a national leader in experiential learning, Goodman facilitates service-learning programs and international co-op placements, preparing our students for successful careers around the world. With expected completion in 2018 of an expanded and re-vitalized building, Goodman School will soon offer a new state-of-the-art learning environment. More information on the Goodman School of Business and the MIBS department can be found on the University's website <https://brocku.ca/business/>.

About Brock University

Located in scenic Niagara region, Brock is a progressive, welcoming university set in a safe and pleasant community that is within an hour from the GTA. Brock's main campus sits atop the Niagara Escarpment - a UNESCO World Biosphere Reserve - overlooking the city of St. Catharines. With 18,000 students engaged in more than 100 undergraduate and graduate programs in seven diverse Faculties, Brock's strong academic heart is greatly enriched by renowned experiential learning opportunities and a highly rated student experience.

Our Geography

Often referred to as "Napa North", Niagara is at the heart of Ontario's grape and wine industry, with a striking landscape of rolling vineyards and scores of award-winning wineries. Niagara is also a popular tourism destination characterized by natural beauty, famous attractions and historic landmarks recalling significant chapters of Canada's past. St. Catharines, which is home to an emerging arts and entertainment scene, is a short drive from Toronto, Niagara Falls and Buffalo, N.Y., including less than a 90-minute drive from two international airports. With one of Canada's mildest climate zones, safe communities and affordable real estate, Niagara is an exceptional location to call home.
