Type:	Full Time

The Department of Business and Computer Science at Clarke University invites applications to fill a full time, tenure-track faculty position in the area of marketing. This position involves teaching a combination of undergraduate and graduate courses in traditional face-to-face and hybrid models. Although Clarke University heavily prioritizes teaching in the liberal arts tradition, evidence of professional activity, and service - including advising - are expected. Candidates with a Ph.D. or DBA in the field of marketing are preferred; however, candidates with a Doctorate or a Master's degree and 18 graduate credits in marketing and relevant work experience considered. Previous teaching experience in higher education preferred.

Clarke University faculty and staff enjoy a comprehensive benefits package and a collaborative working environment. Outside of the university, faculty and staff benefit from living and working in a thriving city named one of the "most livable" small cities in the country and one of "Best Green Places" in the country.

To apply for this position, please upload a current CV/resume, a letter of application, teaching philosophy, unofficial transcript and three reference letters online at <http://clarke.applicantpool.com/jobs>. All documents should be uploaded in the resume section of the application. Confidential letters of recommendation can be emailed to HRletters@clarke.edu. Applications will be reviewed effective immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Only completed applications with all information listed above will be reviewed. This position will begin January 2018.
