Position Description

Assistant/Associate Professor of Marketing
Offutt School of Business
Concordia College, 901 8th Street South, Moorhead, MN 56562
Beginning Date: August, 2017

The Position: The Offutt School of Business invites applicants with a background and qualifications in Marketing for a one year visiting position, beginning in August 2018. We seek collegial faculty who view themselves foremost as educators and possess a commitment to scholarship to inform their teaching. There is a preference for professional and international knowledge and experience as well as background in digital marketing. Responsibilities will include teaching undergraduate introductory courses as well as upper-level courses. The successful candidate must demonstrate the capability of making intellectual contributions, including the publication of research in refereed journals. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications and experience, and are competitive.

The Offutt School of Business is one of the largest units in the College, offering majors in Accounting, International Business, Finance, Computer Science and Business Administration (with concentrations in management, marketing, management information systems, economics, and health care administration). The School strives to develop global, ethical, and entrepreneurial leaders for all types of organizations. Concordia College has set ambitious goals for diversity and inclusion and seeks to hire faculty whose experience and professional accomplishments equip them to work effectively with an increasingly diverse set of students.

Concordia College is a private, co-educational, baccalaureate liberal arts college of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America that prepares its students to become responsible leaders in the global society. It is located in the Moorhead (MN)/Fargo (ND) area, a growing metropolitan area of 235,000, consistently ranked among the nation's most livable cities.

Qualifications:

- * PhD/DBA in Marketing or relevant doctorate with recent and sustained research in marketing topics preferred. ABD considered. Candidates with a relevant masters and extensive industry experience will also be considered.
- * Demonstrated evidence of excellence in classroom teaching
- * Demonstrated ability to produce quality scholarship
