ESMT Berlin

Faculty Position in Marketing

Description

ESMT Berlin invites applications for an open-rank position in Marketing, across all specialties. Candidates with interest in quantitative research methods in marketing, data analytics, and/or digital marketing, are particularly encouraged to apply. The position offers teaching opportunities at the Master, MBA, PhD, and executive education levels.

Requirements

Successful candidates should hold a PhD in Marketing or a related field. Junior candidates should have strong research background and display the potential for publications in top marketing journals as well as effective teaching. For mid-career and senior candidates, an established record of research and teaching excellence is expected. At the same time, the willingness and the ability to build and lead research groups is appreciated.

Please send application materials including a cover letter describing present and future research and teaching plans, copies of selected recent publications, an up-to-date detailed résumé with the names and contacts of three academic references to:

Professor Tamer Boyaci, PhD | Dean of Faculty

ESMT Berlin | Schlossplatz 1 | 10178 Berlin | Germany

via e-mail to: faculty.recruitment@esmt.org

There is no formal deadline; applications will be considered until the position is filled.
