The Nathan M. Bisk College of Business at Florida Institute of Technology is looking for a full-time instructor to join our team in changing the way business education is delivered. If you want to be a part of a dynamic, growing business school focused on quality through the convergence of theoretical and practical education, then we encourage you to investigate this exciting opportunity.

We invite applications from enthusiastic, highly-engaged individuals for a nine-month Assistant Professor position with academic and professional qualifications in marketing and management in a global environment and with preference to additional qualifications in entrepreneurship, technology innovation and global management.

Duties:

Position: This position requires applicants to possess a passion for providing an exceptional learning experience for our students. The position requires a commitment to providing outstanding service on behalf of the Bisk College of Business. Our College has a collaborative culture of teamwork. Our faculty work together on and enjoy the success of building upon innovation and entrepreneurial initiatives, program development, strategic growth and marketing efforts.

Qualifications:

Minimum Requirements:

Candidates must have a Ph.D./DBA in Business and qualified to teach undergraduate/graduate marketing and management courses along with significant work experience related to marketing and management. Candidates must also be knowledgeable in core business areas.

Appointment is at the Assistant Professor level. The targeted start date is Fall Semester 2020.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Florida Tech is an equal opportunity affirmative action employer.

In compliance with federal law, all persons hired will be required to verify identity and eligibility to work in the United States and to complete the required employment eligibility verification document form upon hire.

Location: In Melbourne, Florida, on 130 sub-tropical acres including a picturesque botanical garden. The campus is five minutes from the Indian River, ten minutes from the Atlantic Ocean and fifty minutes from the Kennedy Space Center.

Application: Applicants should submit to Dr. Henry Perez (eperez@fit.edu) electronic documents to include: curriculum vitae, cover letter, three letters of reference, and evidence of teaching excellence.

* Official transcripts of all collegiate work must be sent directly from the attended institution to the Human Resources Office prior to the first day of employment.
