

IESE Business School (Barcelona, Spain) invites applications for a tenure-track position in the Marketing Department at the Assistant Professor level (beginning or with some years of experience). Beyond a competitive salary, IESE offers reduced and blocked teaching loads during the first three years.

Candidates should have completed or be close to completing their PhD dissertation and demonstrate research potential leading to publication in top academic journals in the area of marketing. We are especially interested in profiles that will welcome the opportunity to work in a young and dynamic research culture. Candidates already at the Assistant or Associate level at other institutions are also encouraged to apply.

IESE Business School is an international business school committed to the education and development of business leaders worldwide and the generation and communication of significant new business ideas. IESE Business School is among the top five business schools in Europe and is consistently ranked among the top 20 business schools in the world. Our mission is to respond to the needs of both the business and the academic communities. As such, we are looking for strong candidates who can contribute to this endeavor. We have campuses in Barcelona, Madrid, Munich, São Paulo and New York City. We are seeking faculty for our campus in Barcelona.

All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply, although we will be particularly interested in scholars with a long-term commitment to living in Europe/Spain. The starting date is September 2019; earlier entry is also possible if so desired by the candidate.

To be considered for this position, please send the following documents by July 15, 2018 through the following link <https://apply.interfolio.com/51546> :

- 1 Letter of interest with clear indication of the position being applied for.
- 2 Curriculum vitae.
- 3 PDF of research papers/manuscripts.
- 4 At least two reference letters. Please note that letters of recommendation should be sent directly by references (not by candidates)

For additional information on the application process, please contact Carmen Balmaseda at cbalmaseda@iese.edu.

Interviews will be conducted at the AMA Summer Conference. The search process will remain open until the position is filled.
