

IESE Business School (Barcelona, Spain) invites applications for a position in the Marketing Department at the Assistant Professor level. All areas of research within marketing will be considered.

Candidates should have completed or be close to completing their Ph.D. dissertation. All candidates should demonstrate research potential leading to publication in top academic journals. Ability to teach at the graduate level is also encouraged.

The school is also interested in candidates already at the Associate Professor level, with a proven research record.

IESE Business School is an international business school committed to the education and development of business leaders worldwide, and the generation and communication of new business ideas with impact. IESE Business School is among the top five business schools in Europe and is consistently ranked among the top 20 business schools in the world. Our mission is to respond to the needs of both the business and the academic communities. As such, we are seeking strong candidates that can contribute to this endeavor.

We have campuses in Barcelona, Madrid, Munich, Sao Paulo and New York. We are seeking faculty for our campus in Barcelona.

All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply. Knowledge of Spanish is not necessary. The starting date is Fall 2016.
