Indiana University's Kelley School of Business provides programs in two locations: Bloomington and Indianapolis. The Indianapolis program is located on the campus of Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). IUPUI is Indiana's premier urban research university and a core campus of Indiana University. It is a highly regarded and successful 45 year old joint venture between Indiana University and Purdue University. It enrolls over 30,000 students, representing all 50 states and 142 foreign countries and has more than 2,500 faculty. In the most recent academic year, IUPUI received just over $305.2 million in research funding, and it set a record for fundraising at a public university in Indiana in 2013 by raising over $1.39 billion. IUPUI consists of twenty schools and academic units, including the Kelley School of Business, Indiana University's Schools of Public and Environmental Affairs, Law, Liberal Arts, Informatics, Medicine, Dentistry and Nursing and Purdue's Schools of Engineering and Technology, and Science. The new Lilly Family School of Philanthropy is also on IUPUI's campus. In 2014, IUPUI was ranked 5th by U.S. News and World Report in "Up-and-Coming National Universities."

The Kelley School of Business Indianapolis has over 1,700 students (1,100 undergraduate and 600 graduate) and nearly 60 full-time faculty. The Kelley School has a broad and excellent repertoire of in-residence (part-time in Indianapolis and full-time in Bloomington), online (Kelley Direct) and executive MBA programs. In 2013, the Kelley School welcomed an inaugural class into its newly launched Business of Medicine MBA program for practicing physicians. The Kelley School has consistently been ranked among the top 20 MBA programs in the world. The Evening MBA program in Indianapolis is ranked in the top 10 part-time MBA programs in the United States. Information regarding the Indianapolis programs can be found at: <http://kelley.iupui.edu/>. The Kelley School at Indianapolis provides an excellent research environment, with attractive teaching loads, generous research support, and a stimulating intellectual environment. The multi-disciplinary faculty is both very collegial and very productive.

As an institution located in a vibrant city atmosphere, the school provides excellent opportunities for a career and high quality of life. Indianapolis is the thirteenth largest city in the United States and the 29th largest metropolitan area in the United States with a population of over one and a half million. It is the home of the Indiana state government, is considered to be one of America's most livable urban centers, and is a burgeoning center for R&D. The campus' location is within blocks of what Forbes and Livability.com rank as one of the best downtowns in the United States and a major healthcare campus, which facilitates the advancement of research and teaching while presenting unique opportunities for internships, partnerships, and community engagement. Indianapolis boasts five professional sports teams; world-class museums including the world's largest children's museum; numerous companies and company headquarters including Eli Lilly and Company, Finish Line, Brightpoint, Roche Diagnostics, and Rolls-Royce to name a few; and a rich cultural heritage.
