Job Description

The Graduate School of International Management (GSIM) at the International University of Japan (IUJ) seeks a tenure-track faculty member in the following areas and subjects in Assistant or Associate Professor level.

Entrepreneurship

Sales Management

Retail Management

Consumer Behaviour

Internet Marketing

The appointment starts from April 2016. A candidate must hold a Ph.D.; demonstrate excellence in teaching and research in English. The qualified candidate must meet AACSB based academic credentials.

Compensation is commensurate with academic accomplishments and experience. The teaching load is three content courses (two-credit each) plus three seminar courses (one-credit each) per academic year, all at MBA level in English. Each course lasts ten weeks. Based on experience and interest, additional teaching opportunities are also available in the growing executive education programs. GSIM also offers research funding. It is subscribed to major databases such as LexisNexis, Compustat, Datastream, etc.

About IUJ:

The Graduate School of International Management (GSIM) at IUJ was established in 1988 with the support of top Japanese companies, including Panasonic, Komatsu, IBM-Japan, Sony, and Toyota. IUJ offers only graduate-level programs and all instruction is in the English language. The 160-member GSIM student body is truly international, representing over forty countries from all parts of the globe. With internationally trained faculty, excellent facilities for computing and research, and a picturesque rural campus location within 100 minutes of Tokyo by bullet train, IUJ provides a unique, attractive working environment in Japan. More information about IUJ can be found at www.iuj.ac.jp.

Job Requirements

Interested candidates should submit an electronic or a hard copy of the following material. Applications will be considered until the position is filled.

1. A detailed resume or C.V. with a cover letter explaining the candidate's interest in IUJ, how the candidate can add value as a faculty member, and a research agenda/plan for the next two to three years.
2. Evidence of scholarly research (publications and/or articles submitted for publication)
3. Teaching experience/evaluations.
4. Three letters of recommendation.
