Job Description

The Department of Marketing & International Business in the Iona College School of Business invites applications for a tenure-track position as Assistant Professor of Marketing beginning September 2018.

Interested candidates should hold a Ph.D. in Marketing from an AACSB-accredited institution or be close to defending their dissertation by August 2018. Successful candidates will exhibit a record of high-quality scholarly research as well as excellence in undergraduate and graduate teaching. Candidates will be expected to have the ability to teach a wide range of undergraduate and graduate marketing courses, including courses in sales management, integrated marketing communications (including use of social media), and marketing strategy.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, CV, and the names and email addresses of three individuals prepared to speak on their professional qualifications.
