

Position Announcement: Marketing

The marketing area in the Desautels Faculty of Management at McGill University is recruiting for possibly two tenure-track/tenured positions. One position is targeted at a more experienced candidate at the assistant, associate, or full professor level with research and teaching interests in the area of retailing. The other position is open to all ranks and specializations. Experienced candidates applying for the retailing position should highlight their research and teaching record in retailing in their cover letter.

Applicants should have outstanding potential as both a scholar and a teacher. The start date for the position(s) is August 1, 2018. Applicants should either have a PhD in hand, or plan to complete their PhD by December 31, 2018. Rank and salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. Applications should include a cover letter from the candidate, curriculum vitae, sample research paper(s), and three letters of reference. These materials need to be submitted online at:

<https://www.mcgill.ca/desautels/research/specializations/marketing/recruitment-marketing>

To ensure full consideration, applications should be submitted by 12:00 noon (Eastern Standard Time), June 19, 2017. Representatives from the marketing area at McGill will be attending the AMA Summer Marketing Academic Conference in San Francisco, CA, USA, from August 4-6, 2017, and will be scheduling preliminary interviews at this conference.
