The Girard School of Business at Merrimack College seeks to fill the position of Assistant/Associate Professor (tenure-track) of Entrepreneurship starting fall 2020.

Position Overview: The successful candidate will help to develop entrepreneurship-related courses and assist with the creation of an entrepreneurship track in the business school. They will be expected to deliver high-quality undergraduate and graduate instruction to students including both on campus and online modalities. Courses (3/3 teaching load) may also include Marketing Strategy, Principles of Marketing, and potentially others. New courses may be proposed based upon the needs of the program and candidate expertise. Faculty members are expected to establish and maintain their own research agendas, which may include community engaged scholarship work. Pursuit of externally-funded grants to support research is encouraged. Service is
