Institution Overview:

The Dillard College of Business Administration at MSU Texas offers AACSB-accredited undergraduate and graduate programs to approximately 900 students. Its thirty faculty members work closely and collaboratively to produce graduates ready to succeed professionally and also to provide specialized services to the region. The college enjoys an excellent student-faculty ratio. Our small classes are designed to provide a small college environment at an affordable state university price. Faculty know their students and provide them with the personal attention that is made possible through smaller classes. MSU Texas, with an enrollment of about 6,000 students, is one of 36 public institutions of higher education in Texas. It is the only Texas university that is a member of the Council of Public Liberal Arts Colleges (COPLAC).

MSU Texas is located in Wichita Falls, Texas which has an area population of 150,000 and lies approximately 120 miles northwest of the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. This convenient location, combined with our vibrant university, a local U.S. Air Force base, a downtown renaissance, and a low cost of living makes it an attractive place to live, work and play.
