

Marketing Faculty Position (Clinical)
Department of Marketing and Logistics
Fisher College of Business
The Ohio State University

The Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University invites applications for a clinical-track faculty position in the Department of Marketing and Logistics. We seek candidates with the ability to teach a variety of marketing courses, specifically at the MBA-level.

Successful candidates will also have a record of service activity and community engagement, as well as experience fostering corporate relationships for executive education and collaborative research. A Ph.D. in Marketing is preferred, but candidates with a master's level education and relevant industry experience will also be considered.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, three letters of recommendation, and a curriculum vita to mktrecruiting@fisher.osu.edu. Applications and recommendation letters should be received by January 31, 2020 or until the position is filled.

The Ohio State University is committed to establishing a culturally and intellectually diverse environment, encouraging all members of our learning community to reach their full potential. We are responsive to dual-career families and strongly promote work-life balance to support our community members through a suite of institutionalized policies. We are an NSF Advance Institution and a member of the Ohio/Western Pennsylvania/West Virginia Higher Education Recruitment Consortium.

All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability status, or protected veteran status.
