The Krannert School of Management invites applicants for a tenure-track/tenured appointment in marketing beginning Fall 2018. Candidates at all ranks (Assistant, Associate and Full Professor) will be considered. Candidates must have a strong commitment to research and teaching in undergraduate and graduate programs in management and a research oriented Ph.D. program in marketing. All candidates must have a PhD in marketing or a closely-related field by start date. Candidates for an assistant professor position should exhibit the capacity for research publishable in top-tier marketing journals and excellence in teaching. Candidates for an associate professor position should have an established record of excellence in research, teaching, and service. A tenured associate/full professor appointment is possible for a candidate with an established record of excellence in research, evidence of national and international visibility, excellence in teaching and service and evidence of participation in doctoral student research and mentoring.

Applications will be reviewed immediately and continue until the position is filled. Applications should include a CV, representative research output, and evidence of teaching ability. Applicants should also be prepared to provide at least three letters of reference. Interested applicants should apply at:
