Randolph-Macon College

Marketing/Business Faculty

Description

Marketing/Business Professor Search

Marketing/Business Faculty Position: Randolph-Macon College in Ashland, Virginia seeks candidates for a tenure-track appointment in the Department of Economics, Business, and Accounting at the rank of Assistant Professor, beginning September 2019. Teaching responsibilities will include participation in the introductory business course and core marketing course for the major in business, and upper-level courses in marketing. The ideal candidate will have an interest in consumer behavior and other areas appropriate to an undergraduate liberal arts program, and a willingness to lead the development of a potential marketing concentration for the business major. Ph.D. in-hand by the start date, evidence of teaching excellence, and a defined research agenda are strongly preferred. The annual seven course teaching load (3-1-3) also requires participation in college service activities, including academic advising. Information about the Department of Economics, Business, and Accounting can be found at <http://www.rmc.edu/departments/economics-and-business>. Candidates should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, statement of research interests, transcripts (official or photocopy), and three current letters of recommendation all in one PDF document via email to Dr. Steven D. Lang c/o Ms. Sabrina Granderson at SabrinaGranderson@rmc.edu. Review of applications will begin upon receipt and will continue until the position is filled. Interested candidates should indicate their availability for first-round interviews at the AMA
