The Puri School of Business at Rockford University is seeking qualified candidates for a fulltime, tenure-track position in Marketing. Our programs include traditional and accelerated Bachelor and MBA programs. The successful candidate will have a primary teaching responsibility in marketing among our day and evening classes. The normal teaching load is 12 credit hours per semester.

Since 1847, our faculty have prepared graduates to make their mark all around the world. Your role as a marketing faculty member in the Puri School of Business is to empower our graduates to accomplish anything. With rich academic opportunities, practical experiences, and global perspectives, the Puri School of Business creates an unparalleled academic opportunity where your academic excellence will contribute to our diverse academic programs.

Preference will be given to candidates with the appropriate terminal degree (e.g. Ph.D., DBA, ABD), or a Graduate degree in Marketing or an MBA, with academic and professional qualifications to teach graduate and undergraduate courses in marketing and related fields of business.

We are looking for candidates with outstanding teaching skills, interest in advising traditional and non-traditional students from globally diverse populations. The ideal candidate will be willing to direct internships, and willing to become actively involved in the Rockford area community. If you have the ability to teach graduate and undergraduate courses, have an interest in online teaching, and would like to explore the opportunity to write and publish in professional or academic journals, you are encouraged to apply.

Our review of applications will begin December 1st, 2017, and the application process will remain open until the position is filled.
