Employment Type Full-time

The School of Business at Saint Martin's University invites applications for two tenure-track positions as entry-level Assistant Professor in Business in Management (broadly understood to include specializations in project management, applied economics, public and/or nonprofit administration, international/global business, and entrepreneurship) and Marketing or Accounting (audit) (CPA required, CIA (Certified Internal Auditor) and/or CFE (Certified Fraud Examiner) preferred). Saint Martin's is a Catholic Benedictine university student-centered ethos, and faculty members are encouraged to teach across disciplines, to engage in scholarship, and to contribute to the life of the University through service. Qualified candidates have the opportunity to play a leading role in developing and growing the MBA program.

A doctoral degree is required, practical experience is a plus (additional professional credentials such as PMI certification, SixSigma Black Belt, is high desirable). Candidates should have a strong commitment to excellence in teaching and service, and an active program of scholarship. Experience in teaching in an evening MBA program is also a plus.

Candidates must have valid documentation permitting them to work permanently in the US from the date on which the appointment at Saint Martin's takes effect. The positions are subject to budgetary approval.

Preferred start date is August 2017. The position is a 9 month appointment. The standard teaching load is 12 semester hours. Teaching expectations include evening classes as well as some classes at off-campus regional sites (within a 20 miles radius). The School of Business offers degrees in Business Administration, Accounting, and an evening MBA. The University faculty are engaged in initiatives to transform the Core Curriculum and the academic course structure; successful candidates will have an opportunity to contribute to these discussions and to join a Business program that is strategically poised to extend its reach and reputation.

Saint Martin's University is an independent four-year, Catholic, coeducational university located on a 380-acre wooded campus in Lacey, Washington. Established in 1895 by the Catholic Order of Saint Benedict, the University is one of 18 Benedictine colleges and universities in the United States and Canada, and the only one west of the Rocky Mountains. Saint Martin's University prepares students for successful lives through its 22 majors and six graduate programs spanning the liberal arts, business, education, and engineering. Saint Martin's welcomes 1,250 students from many ethnic and religious backgrounds to its main campus, and 650 more to its extension campuses located at Joint Base Lewis-McChord.

Application Process

Electronic applications are required and must include a cover letter responsive to the specific faculty position announcement, CV, and the names and contact information of at least three references. Review of candidates is underway and will continue until an appointment is made.

Please submit the above documentation online to business@stmartin.edu. More information about Saint Martin's University may be found at www.stmartin.edu. All positions are subject to final budget approval. Saint Martin's University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer.
