Solbridge International School of Business Visiting Professorships in Korea

Description

Solbridge International School of Business announces new openings for visiting professors in all business disciplines. These appointments are for one year, with a possibility for extension for a second year, or conversion to a tenure track appointment depending on qualifications. We are looking for dedicated and experienced teachers who can relate to a diverse student body.

Solbridge International School of Business is an AACSB accredited business school located in Daejeon, South Korea. Our American standard curriculum is taught completely in English to more than 1150 students from 56 countries. Our distinguished international faculty come from 12 countries. Daejeon, home to more than 20 universities and research centers, is known as Korea's Silicon Valley, and is just one hour by high speed train from Seoul.

Interested candidates should have a PhD in a business discipline or related field, with academic or industrial experience. Candidates with MBA qualification may be considered with significant recent industrial experience. Selected candidates will be invited for a Skype interview with members of the Faculty Recruiting Committee. Openings are available starting September 2018.
