St. Bonaventure University
School of Business
Department of Marketing
Tenure-track Assistant or Associate
Professor Position

St. Bonaventure University invites applications for a tenure-track position in Marketing at the Assistant or Associate Professor level. The successful candidate will demonstrate a commitment to quality teaching, research, service to the department and university, and collegiality.

The ability to teach at both undergraduate and graduate levels is expected, both in-person and online. The candidate will also undertake scholarly research in a collaborative and supportive environment that welcomes theory based research within the marketing discipline as well as inter-disciplinary and education-related research. Applicants must meet the AACSB academically qualified (scholarly academic) requirement. Service activities may include leadership roles as well as service learning and/or co-curricular activities. Although there is an expectation that qualified candidates will be able to teach all marketing related topics, we have a particular interest in Integrated Marketing Communications and Marketing Analytics.

Applications may be submitted online at marketingsearch@sbu.edu

St. Bonaventure University is the nation's premier Franciscan university, located in Western New York State. The School of Business, accredited by the AACSB, moved into its new state-of-the-art Swan Business Center home in Fall 2013.

The School of Business includes more than 20 full-time faculty members, four of whom are full-time marketing department faculty, offering undergraduate degrees in Marketing, Management, Finance, and Accounting and two MBA programs – one in person and one fully online. All undergraduate and MBA programs are fully accredited by AACSB.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. The position appointment is expected to begin in the Fall of 2020 if a suitable candidate is found; the position will remain open until a suitable candidate is found, even beyond Fall 2020.

St. Bonaventure University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity educational institution. It is guided by the principle that equal opportunity means more than equal employment opportunity, and that access to facilities and services shall be available to all people regardless of their race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, veteran status, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or gender identity/expression. This principle is applicable to every member of the St. Bonaventure community, both students and employed personnel at every level, and to all facilities and services. In light of its commitment to create and maintain a safe learning and working environment, employment with St. Bonaventure University requires successful completion of a background screening. Unless otherwise provided by law, a criminal record will not automatically disqualify an individual from employment.
