College of Human Sciences

Hospitality & Retail Management™

Assistant / Associate Professor Faculty Position

Application Due: February 1, 2019 (or until filled)

Type: Nine months, Tenure-track

Position Availability: September 1, 2019

Salary: Competitive, based on qualifications.

Minimum Qualifications:

Ph.D. in Retailing, Hospitality Management, or closely related field. Applicants who are ABD may apply but must demonstrate that the degree will be awarded before September 1, 2019. Preference given to those with demonstrated ability to work with large data sets, data analytics, and work with category management related data. Highly desirable to have worked with both retailer and vendor data. Qualified individuals will demonstrate the ability to publish in leading academic journals, possess demonstrated teaching, research, and industry experience, and a willingness to seek external funding is desirable.

Responsibilities:

Teach category management related courses at the graduate and undergraduate levels, particularly data analytics and research. Establish a focused research program that can be supported through the acquisition of external funding; participate in program development; serve on departmental, college, and university committees. Advise graduate students to completion of their degrees and engage in undergraduate research activities. Actively provide outreach to the community and develop a strong record of community engagement.

Texas Tech University and HRM Department:

Over 38,000 students attend Texas Tech University on its 1,839 acre campus in Lubbock, Texas. Texas Tech University is a designated Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI).
