

JOB POSTING

The School of Economics and Management at Tongji University (Tongji SEM), Shanghai, China (<http://sem.tongji.edu.cn/>) invites promising applicants for a tenure-track position in the Advanced Institute of Business Research (AIBR). All academic ranks are open, including assistant, associate, and full professor. Candidates with a research focus in marketing strategy and quantitative marketing are especially welcome.

Tongji SEM is one of the premier management schools in China with the prestigious accreditations by the AACSB, EQUIS, and AMBA. Located in Shanghai, the school attracts students from around the world to pursue Bachelor's, Master's, and Doctoral courses. The school also mentors top-level corporate executives and managers through its Executive MBA and MDP programs. Established in 1907, Tongji University is one of the leading public universities in the country with approximately 35,000 students. The university offers bachelor, master and doctoral degrees in technology, business, architecture, science, medicine, law, social sciences, and foreign languages.

AIBR at Tongji SEM promotes a friendly academic environment among its faculty members to publish research papers in top-tier journals. Applicants with excellent research capabilities and quality publications are highly desirable. Applicants should have interests and training in areas such as Marketing, Psychology, Economics, and other related disciplines. Demonstrated ability or potential for high quality research and teaching are essential. Applicants must have a Ph.D. (expected completion by June 30, 2018) from an accredited institution. The appointment is expected to begin before July 1, 2018.

Tongji SEM offers a competitive salary package, including tenure-track salary, research funds, relocation and housing allowances. In addition, the school supports faculty with abundant research grants and also encourages faculty to take part in executive master programs, management development programs, workshops, and conferences.

How to Apply

Please email your application kit, including curriculum vita, three recommendation letters, Job Market Paper and other relevant working papers or journal articles—electronically as PDF documents to Mrs. Dora Zheng (dora.zheng@tongji.edu.cn). The application screening process will start as soon as the application is received. The position will remain open until filled.

Qualified candidates who submit applications by July 10, 2017 will be considered for an interview at the August 2017 AMA Summer Conference in San Francisco, CA. We will send these candidates confirmation letters before July 20, 2017.
