The Department of Marketing & Entrepreneurship in the C. T. Bauer College of Business at the University of Houston welcomes inquiries regarding one tenure-track faculty position starting Fall 2020. Non-rookie candidates at all levels will be considered. The College also has plans to consider several qualified applicants for additional tenure-track positions across each of the five departments at different levels and ranks, whose research relates to strategic areas of focus of each department, for a total of ten faculty positions across the College. Marketing applicants with interests in Marketing Analytics, Artificial Intelligence, Sales, Entrepreneurship and Healthcare may be considered for those positions.

The Department of Marketing & Entrepreneurship has been successful in attracting excellent researchers at the senior and junior levels. For details about the faculty, research, and publications, visit the department website at www.bauer.uh.edu/marketing .

The Bauer College is home to over 5,700 undergraduate students and over 800 graduate students, offering undergraduate degree, MBA degrees, MS degrees accountancy, finance, energy management, marketing and supply chain; and Ph.D. degrees in business.

The Bauer College benefits from hosting several endowed centers, two of which are housed in the Department of Marketing & Entrepreneurship. The program hosted by our Wolff Center for Entrepreneurship is ranked #2 nationally by Princeton Review. The Stagner Sales Excellence Institute hosts our research and instructional programs in professional selling, which is widely recognized to be among the best nationally.

Houston offers a great professional and personal environment.
