The University of Illinois offers an outstanding tradition of scholarship and a supportive environment for faculty development and excellence. The Gies College of Business at Illinois received a monumental $150 million investment from U of I alumnus, Larry and Beth Gies. This gift ranks amongst the largest to any business school in U.S. history. This investment will grow and strengthen our investment in students, faculty and world-class programs and will solidify our distinction as a global innovator in business.

The Gies College of Business offers the Ph.D., MBA, iMBA, and specialized Masters' programs, as well as undergraduate programs. The Marketing area is an interdisciplinary group of faculty whose research and teaching encompasses state-of-the-art marketing topics.

As part of the larger Department of Business Administration, with leading scholars in International Business, Information Systems, Management, and Marketing among other related fields, we offer a uniquely hospitable environment for interdisciplinary work, as well as the opportunity to work with talented doctoral students. We seek like-minded individuals who are committed to engaged scholarship of the highest caliber. Additional information about the Department, our programs and faculty may be found at <https://giesbusiness.illinois.edu/business-administration>.

In order to ensure full consideration, applications must be received by February 15, 2020. Applications received by February 15, 2020, will be given first consideration. Interviews may take place and offers may be made before the closing date, but all applications received by the closing date will receive full consideration for an open position. Review of applications will continue until suitable candidates are identified. Applications and supplemental materials must be submitted online at <https://jobs.illinois.edu>. Application materials must include a letter of intent, curriculum vitae, a sample publication and/or working paper, and evidence of past teaching success. Doctoral candidates must also send three letters of recommendation; all other applicants must submit names and contact information of at least three professional references.
