Job Description

The University of North Carolina at Pembroke's School of Business invites candidates for the position of Assistant or Associate Professor to teach undergraduate and MBA classes in Marketing, including such courses as Marketing Strategy, Principles of Marketing, Consumer Behavior, Retail Management, Personal Selling and Sales Management, Marketing Research, and/or International Marketing. Start date for the position is August 2017. Appointment at the assistant or associate professor level is anticipated. The standard teaching load is 3 courses per semester. Course assignments may be during the daytime or evenings, and may include off-campus locations and online delivery. The School of Business is accredited by the Association for Advancement of Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB).

The candidate must publish in peer reviewed journals necessary to maintain AACSB Scholarly Academic (SA) status, and for tenure and promotion consideration. Service to the University/School/Department and the community is valued and required. Hence, performance will be assessed in terms of teaching, research, and service quality and/or productivity.

Founded in 1887, The University of North Carolina at Pembroke is a public, four-year master's degree-granting member institution of the University of North Carolina system that is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. In every respect, a key aim of The University of North Carolina at Pembroke is to effect positive change through education. On a fundamental level, the School of Business at The University of North Carolina at Pembroke strives to provide each student an outstanding business education through Bachelor of Science degrees in Business Administration (with concentrations in Marketing, Management, International Business, Entrepreneurship, Finance, and Economics) and Accounting as well as a Master of Business Administration degree delivered by highly qualified faculty and staff in a collegial, supportive, and achievement-oriented work environment. Pembroke is a quiet, safe community located off Interstate 95 halfway between Boston and Miami that provides convenient access to many major metro areas of the Carolinas. For example, from campus both the picturesque mountains of western North Carolina and the world-famous beaches and resorts of the Carolina coastline are within reach.

Rank is open and depends on the qualifications and achievements of the candidate, but no higher than the rank currently held at another university.
