Job Summary/Basic Function:	The Department of Marketing, Logistics, and Operations Management in the College of Business at the University of North Texas seeks applicants for a tenure-track, Assistant or Associate Professor position beginning September 1, 2018. Preference will be given to candidates with specializations in Consumer Behavior or with a concentration in behavioral research, rigorous training in quantitative empirical methods (including survey research, secondary/archival data analysis, event study, experimental design etc.), and who are open to multidisciplinary and multi-method research. Successful applicants must demonstrate high-quality scholarly research and publications/potential to publish in top marketing journals and the ability to teach undergraduate, masters and/or Ph.D. courses in marketing while also mentoring doctoral students. UNT's Department of Marketing, Logistics, and Operations Management The department consists of twenty tenured and tenure-track faculty members and offers undergraduate, master's and doctoral degrees with a concentration in marketing. Faculty members are expected to publish in leading journals in the field of marketing (e.g. Journal of Marketing, Journal of Marketing Research, Journal of Consumer Research, Journal of Applied Psychology) and engage in leading research that supports UNT's status as a Tier One research university. As such, we offer an environment that supports faculty research, including a 2/2 teaching load, subject pools and laboratories in behavioral research and modeling and simulation. Denton, Texas University of North Texas is located in Denton TX about 30 miles from Dallas. Denton is a part of the Dallas/Fort Worth metroplex, one of the fastest-growing areas of the country. Denton features all the benefits that come with life in a big-city region, but also retains the charm, convenience and amiability of a smaller university town. Denton enjoys a very pleasant but stimulating way of life, reflected in the city's restaurants, cultural sites, neighborhoods and celebrated music scene. The region also provides ample opportunities to work with manufacturing and service industries. Salary and Benefits Salary and supporting start-up packages are competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience. UNT offers an attractive package of benefits including medical and dental coverage plus a choice of participation in the Teacher Retirement System or an Optional Retirement System. Review of applications begins immediately. Applications will be accepted until the position is closed. However, to ensure the fullest consideration please submit your materials no later than January 1, 2018. Applicants who are selected for interviews must be able to show

proof that they will be eligible and qualified to work in the United States by time of hire.
