for full position details and to apply.

We seek candidates with expertise in marketing who are interested in teaching marketing management and marketing electives in topics of their choosing. We also value candidates who have experience in industry, though it is not a requirement. Candidates should have strong team-working capabilities.

This position requires a strong commitment to excellence in teaching at the undergraduate and graduate level as well as excellence in research. We are particularly interested in candidates who value interdisciplinary studies and can integrate their course content with other disciplines of the administrative sciences. Candidates who can demonstrate expertise or experience with diverse pedagogical techniques are likewise encouraged to apply. The teaching load is 4 courses per year over three terms.

We seek candidates that demonstrate the capacity to conduct ongoing scholarly research that is consistent with the rank sought and who are enthusiastic about making service contributions internally to the UQAC community and externally to academic associations, organizations and events. To support faculty research agendas, the university offers a starting fund and lighter teaching load in the first two years after appointment.

University of Québec at Chicoutimi is an equal opportunity employer. In keeping with the university mission, we welcome applications from underrepresented minority candidates and members of other communities that are traditionally underrepresented in academia.

All the applications will be treated in a confidential manner. Candidates may send their application file containing the following:

- A complete resume along with copies of all diplomas
- Three (3) letters of recommendation specifying the number of the job announcement (DAD-631)

Application are open until *March 12, 2020 at 4:00 PM (EST). *No applications will be accepted after this date.

If you have questions about the position, please call the following number +1 418-545-5011 ext. 5043.
