

University of Talca
School of Business & Economics

CALL FOR APPLICANTS

The School of Business and Economics at the University of Talca is now accepting applications for a position as a full-time professor starting in March 2017 at the University's Santiago campus. The ideal candidate will possess the following qualifications:

- Doctoral degree (Ph.D.) in Marketing, Economics, Finance, Public Policy or related subjects;
- Undergraduate or graduate-level teaching experience in subject of expertise;
- Recipient of national or international research grants;
- Research published in indexed (ISI/SCOPUS) journals;
- Spanish proficiency sufficient to teach native Spanish speakers in subject of expertise; and
- Ability to work well with others as part of a team.

Required documents:

- Current curriculum vitae (C.V.);
- Job Market Paper;
- Copies of relevant publications, especially within the preceding 5 years; and
- Two letters of recommendation.

Applications should be sent via e-mail to Sánchez (psanchez@utalca.cl) and Bernardo Lara (blara@utalca.cl), with subject "Concurso Académico FEN Santiago".