POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Professor of Marketing – Open Rank

Pending final approval, The University of Tennessee, Haslam College of Business invites applications and nominations for a tenure track position (open rank) in its Department of Marketing. The position requires a Ph.D. in marketing or related field and is open to new doctoral recipients as well as assistant, associate or full professors. While candidates from all specialization areas will be considered, preference will be given to qualified applicants whose research interests coincide with our strategy focus, including scholars in areas such as marketing strategy, frontline marketing, consumer-based strategy, services marketing, and retailing, and to applicants who employ empirical modeling in their research. Entry level applicants must have completed all requirements for the Ph.D. degree at the time of the appointment and have initiated an ambitious program of research leading to publications in top tier journals. Applicants at advanced stages must have a record of high-quality publications and teaching excellence. The effective date of employment will be August 1, 2020 (or when filled).

Application Procedure

Qualified individuals are invited to submit their application materials via e-mail to marketingsearch@utk.edu. All application materials should be submitted in PDF format (a single file is strongly preferred). Entry level candidates should include a cover letter, vitae, and three letters of reference when applying. Applicants at advanced stages should submit a cover letter, vitae, and the names and contact information for three professional references (formal letters of reference will be requested during later phases of the selection process).

Review of the application materials will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Initial interviews with selected applicants will be conducted during the 2019 AMA Summer Marketing Educators' Conference in Chicago and may be conducted virtually thereafter.

If you have any questions about the position or application process, please contact the search committee chair, Dr. Stephanie M. Noble, via e-mail at snoble@utk.edu or telephone at 865.974.5311.

Responsibilities

The position entails conducting state-of-the-art research, teaching at the undergraduate, MBA, and Ph.D. levels, interacting with industry partners, and performing other faculty duties. The successful candidate is expected to enhance the research environment in the Marketing Department and Haslam College of Business, and to engage in collaborative research with fellow faculty members and doctoral students. New tenure track hires teach three courses per year and receive summer research funding and annual operating support.
