Faculty Positions in Marketing

The School of Management is recruiting to fill two tenure-track faculty positions in the marketing program at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor level. Applicants must either have a PhD degree or must be in the process of getting a PhD degree in marketing or economics or equivalent, and demonstrate a record of scholarly research. A research orientation of quantitative approaches is desirable. Appointments will be effective September 1, 2017.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Indication of gender and ethnicity for affirmative action statistical reporting purposes is requested but not required for consideration.

Applicants should submit their curriculum vitae (educational history, teaching, research and other pertinent work experience, list of publications and presentations), and three reference letters via the ONLINE APPLICATION FORM.

Once you start the online application process, you will receive an email with instructions to access your personal application profile website. You may use your personal site at any time to check your applications status or to submit additional materials. The email will also contain instructions for mailing/posting paper documents.

If you do not receive the email (or need to recover lost instructions), please return to this page and resubmit your email address. Don't worry about creating multiple applications; the system will keep everything straight.

For help with the electronic application process, please don't hesitate to contact the Provost's Technology Group help line ptg@utdallas.edu or call us at +1.972.883.6969.

The University of Texas at Dallas is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, pregnancy, age, veteran status, genetic information or sexual orientation.
